Wine Descriptions and Prices

White

---

Viognier:

Texas High Plains: Full bodied dry white wine that originated in Southern France but has found a welcome home in Texas. Viognier has a crisp pear finish and is the perfect dry white wine to compliment your favorite poultry and fish entrees $25

Riesling:

100% Texas – Made in true Riesling style, it offers a crisp, semi-sweet finish, very floral with honey overtones. Perfect with cheese and fruit or your favorite summer salad $23

Moscato:

Texas High Plains – Warmed on the tongue, the effervescence of this true Moscato explodes with sweetness of honey and peaches. Moscato is a light sparkling type wine, meant to be enjoyed as an aperitif, and pairs perfectly with brunch, light cheese and melons $20

Specialty

---

Peachy Keen:

100% Texas Muscat Canelli grapes with essence of peach bring out the rich peach flavor that Texas love. Perfect for poolside and as a base wine for sangria $25

Prim Rose:

Texas Rose vinified from Texas High Plains Zinfandel. Chilled with a crisp finish, it offers overtones of apples and cherries. Perfect with salads, fruit and cheese trays or simply shared with friends $23

Beso de Chocolate:

A unique wine, made from red grapes from the Texas High Plains. It is flavored with essence of chocolate and almond. Serve chilled as a dessert wine, pour over ice cream, or indulge yourself with a glass as an afternoon delight $27

Red

---

Sunset Red:

A chillable sweet red, blended from Texas High Plains and Texoma grapes. Pairs well with BBQ, Tex-Mex, and spicy dishes. It also makes a great mulled wine for the holidays $25

Rivers Edge Red:

A big bold dry red wine. Made from Aglianico grapes harvested from the Texas High Plains and, gently crushed together in a field blend and fermented to express the dark fruit and spicy finish of classic Aglianico. $28
